

The time is now!

By Kathrin Lehmann (Text), Paul Etterlin (Komposition)

You wake up in the morning and you know That your big day has come You've put in such of hard work It's the moment you've waited for counting down only seconds to go All the pressure is so high

But you feel so strong and good
And finally, the time is now!

It's time to show what you've got
What you've worked your whole life for It's time to face the fight
Check it out if you've got the stuff

And you're scared of the end sometimes you're in the wrong place and the time all confidence fades away Burnout must be just ahead

You're nervous with sweaty hands start to think that you're just a fool You've been thrown off track start to think, you just can't win

When it's time to show what you've got
What you've worked your whole life for
When the time comes to win but you fail
The silence falls you feel alone.

But your heart starts beating louder, fires you up to go out there it is always there for you reminds you hey "we are a team"

Your heart starts beating louder,
fires you up to go out there
It is always there just for you tells you what you need to hear:

Come on!
Courage
Power
Passion

Cause It's time to show what you've got What you've worked your whole life for Just go out there and play your show Show the world what you've really got.

Now you see you are not alone your heart always beats for you.
open your eyes and you will see All your friends who are standing by.

When it's time to show what you've got the sweet glow of big success you dared to dream all came true Because you're here, HERE TO WIN.
